

1 Write T (true) or F (false). Correct the false sentences.

- The Metal Ages began about 3,000 years ago.
  - The first metal objects were made out of copper.
  - Later people learned to use bronze and iron to make objects.
  - People made objects such as weapons, tools and ornaments.
  - Metal objects were not as strong as objects made of stone.
-
-

2 What do you know about the first towns? Match.

- |  |                        |
|--|------------------------|
| a. Places where metals were easy to find           | others became traders. |
| b. For protection, the inhabitants surrounded      | under a chief.         |
| c. They organized themselves into defence groups   | grew into towns.       |
| d. Some people became soldiers to defend the town; | the towns with walls.  |

3 How did these inventions increase trade during the Metal Ages?

- a. The wheel: _____
- b. The sail: _____
- c. The plough: _____

4 Describe the history of metalworking. Number the pictures 1, 2, 3. Then write First, Later and Then.

- a. _____, they learned to melt metal and pour it into a mould.
- b. _____, they hammered metal into a shape.
- c. _____, they learned to heat metal.