

Did you enjoy this unit? What was the most interesting thing you learned? Check your answers and see how you did. Have a great weekend!!! 😊

The Spanish Empire in the 16th century

The reign of Charles I

1. Where was Charles I born?
 - a. France
 - b. Spain
 - c. Austria
 - d. Belgium
2. What territories did he inherit from his maternal grandparents? He inherited territories in Spain, Italy, America, and North Africa.
3. What territories did he inherit from his paternal grandparents? He inherited territories in the Netherlands, France, and Germany.
4. He was called Charles I as King of Spain, but as Emperor of Germany he was called Charles V.
5. T / F Charles I did not know the language or customs of Spain when he became king.
T / F He had counsellors who decreased taxes.
T / F Two rebellions happened in 1520: the Comunidades in Castile and in Valencia.
T / F He fought against German Protestants to defend Catholicism.

The reign of Philip II

6. Philip II became the king of Spain in the year:
 - a. 1546
 - b. 1556
 - c. 1566
 - d. 1576
7. He became the king of Portugal in the year:
 - a. 1560
 - b. 1570
 - c. 1580
 - d. 1590
8. What two battles did Philip II win in 1557 and 1571? The Battle of Saint-Quentin and The Battle of Lepanto
9. Who did the English support in the war between Philip II and the Netherlands?
 - a. The English supported Spain.
 - b. The English supported the Netherlands.

Territories and government

- (Look at the map on page 89 in your class book to answer the questions.)
- Circle all the correct answers for each question.

10. Where were there territories controlled by Charles I?

- a. Europe
- b. America
- c. Africa
- d. Asia
- e. The Philippines

11. Where were there territories controlled by Philip II?

- a. Europe
- b. America
- c. Africa
- d. Asia
- e. The Philippines

12. Where were there territories controlled by both kings?

- a. Europe
- b. America
- c. Africa
- d. Asia
- e. The Philippines