

TOO MUCH, TOO MANY & NOT ENOUGH

Too Much and Too Many

We use “too much” and “too many” to talk about a quantity that is bigger than we need or want.

Too much + uncountable noun

Eg: There is too much salt in this soup

Too many + plural countable noun

Eg: There are too many people on this bus!

Not Enough

We use “not enough” to talk about a quantity that is smaller than we want or need.

Not enough + uncountable noun or countable noun

*Eg: There is not enough sugar in my coffee
There aren't enough chairs for everyone*

---

1. Complete the sentences with too much or too many

Eg Is there     too much     butter on the bread?

I think there are _____ people on the bus. It's not safe.

I don't want _____ jobs to do today because I'm tired.

There's _____ water in this glass. It's overflowing!

Do you think there are _____ cars on the roads these days?

2. Complete the sentences with too much, too many or not enough.

Eg There are     not enough     chairs for everyone, so some people will have to stand.

I've eaten _____ sausages and now I feel sick!

There's _____ water in the dog's bowl. He needs more.

Don't give that little boy _____ chocolate to eat.

3. Choose and circle the correct answer

There were too much / too many people at the concert last Saturday.

We haven't got enough / too many money to buy the laptop.

Washing the car is too many / too much trouble.

You don't need to put too much / too many cheese on the top of the pizza.

There is too much / not enough coffee. Please make some more.

4. Match to complete sentences

They haven't got too many

There isn't enough

There isn't enough money

Have you spent too much to buy all the food.

money.

friends.

yoghurt left in the fridge.

5. Choose the correct answer

There are too _____ things to carry.

- a) much    b) enough    c) many

There is _____ time to do everything I want to do.

- a) too many    b) not enough

I have done _____ housework this week.

- a) too much    b) too many _____ people care about the environment.

- a) Too much    b) Not enough

I don't need _____ fruit for this recipe.

- a) too many    b) too much

There aren't _____ glasses for everybody at the party. Please get some more.

- a) enough    b) not enough