

ENGLISH TASK. WEDNESDAY 29th APRIL

CLASS BOOK PAGE 51. GRAMMAR : COUNTABLE AND UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS.

We are going to study about:

Countable nouns are nouns that you can count. They have plural form. For example: apple=apples, two apples...

(Los nombres contables se pueden contar y forman plural)

Uncountable nouns are nouns that you can't count. They don't have a plural form. (Los nombres incontables no se pueden contar. Están en singular)For example: juice, sugar...

Watch this video:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sCTnesjej8g>

Copy in your notebook:

REMEMBER: THERE IS (SINGULAR) : HAY. IN NEGATIVE THERE ISN'T(NO HAY)

THERE ARE (PLURAL): HAY. IN NEGATIVE THERE AREN'T

Open your Class Book on page 51. Read the dialogue in the exercise 1 and copy the question and answer the question in your notebook.

Then copy the chart of countables and uncountables and the learn to learn. Copia el cuadro en el cuaderno y los siguiente:

Lost of= muchos (va con nombres contables e incontables)

Some= algunos(va con nombres contables e incontables y en oraciones afirmativas)

A few= pocos(sólo con nombres contables)

A Little= poco(va sólo con nombres incontables)

Any= ninguno o ningunos(va con nombres e incontables y con oraciones negativas)

FIJATE BIEN Y ESTUDIA !

Finally practice if you can, with this interactive worksheets about food and drink in your computer. Here is the link. Fichas interactivas sobre comida y bebida.

https://es.liveworksheets.com/worksheets/en/English as a Second Language \(ESL\)/food and drinks/food_and_drinks)