Our favourite food

by Tara, Ben, Dex and Moy

A Ackee and saltfish from Jamaica by Dex

There is lots of delicious food in Jamaica, but this is my favourite dish! It's called Ackee and saltfish.

Ackee is a fruit. In Jamaica it is sunny and there is a lot of delicious fruit. There are a lot of fish, too.

Ingredients: 300g fish, 12 ackees, 1 tomato, 2 onions, 75g butter, 1 red chilli, 1 green pepper

What you need: an apron, a big pan, a knife, a spoon

Grandma's tip!

- Don't use too many chillies! Jamaican chillies are very spicy.
- If there aren't any ackees in the market, you can buy a jar of ackees in a Jamaican shop.
- You must wash the salt off the saltfish before you start. There is too much salt and it will taste horrible if you forget!

B Traditional British Pancakes by Ben

Pancakes are easy to make, you don't have to be a chef!

Traditionally in Britain, people eat pancakes on Pancake Day. But you can eat pancakes any time! These ingredients make about 12 pancakes.

Ingredients: 110g flour, 2 eggs, 200ml milk, 50g butter

There are so many different fillings! Here are some of my favourites: strawberry jam, chocolate and bananas, sugar and lemon juice. My mum sometimes makes pancakes with chocolate ice cream inside. They're called Mum's marvellous pancakes!

Marie's top tip!

Try pancakes with a little maple syrup! They're sweet and yummy!
